FALL 2025

WOMENSWEAR FALL 2025

For fall, we return to our brand heart in New York City. There's a trans-seasonality to the fall wardrobe that echoes the change in season, with lightweight layers that effortlessly transition from the office, to a lunch in Central Park and evening out in the city. As fall comes into full swing, our brand DNA comes to life through a modern interpretation of prep silhouettes, new heritage crest applications and pops of red, white and blue. With winter in sight, we retreat upstate with richer textures of corduroy, chunky wool sweaters and iconic outerwear to cozy up in.

For women, the season begins with a focus on transitional modern classics from denim to lightweight layers. Utility-inspired details and modern power dressing offer a new take on the work wardrobe, while our heritage comes to life through a modern lens with stripes across knitwear, soft wool cable knits and preppy checks. As the season rounds out, outerwear icons come into play, from lightweight down puffers to luxurious wool coats.
